treatment, 12-step meetings
and other conditions.
Klein and Breeshia Noffsinger, 28, also of Ashtabula, were helping Stanley Smith buy pseudoephedrine to make meth, according to prosecutors.
The trio were arrested after a meth lab was found Dec. 8 in the trunk of a car in Willsoughby Hills after a traffic stop on SOM Center Road near Interstate 90.

Smith, 51, of Jefferson, was sentenced to two years in prison while Noffsinger was sentenced to 105 days in jail plus treatment. All three pleaded guilty to the same charge.

Dump truck vs. car crash injures one

One person was sent to the hospital after a crash between a car and a dump truck on July 9 in Mentor.

The dump truck to determine if repairs were needed, the lieutenant said.
At about 2:50 p.m., north-bound Route 308 was reopened.

Drugs and alcohol were not suspected to be a factor in the crash, which remains under investigation, Molnar said.

Man charged with vandalism

The Lake County Sheriff's Department arrested a Cleveland man for causing physical harm to property owned by the Lake County commissioners.

Ramone L. Robertson, 24, of 88 Prospect Ave., was charged with fifth-degree felony vandalism.

Judge Michael Cicconetti set a bond for $7,500 with a 10 percent cash option, which was not posted.

The preliminary hearing is set for July 15. If convicted of the felonies, he faces up to three years behind bars.

Local businesses can advertise at library fair

MADISON - Madison Public Library is hosting a business fair to help citizens get to know all that their community has to offer. Throughout the month of March the library is spotlighting businesses in the Madison and Perry area, asking them to bring a poster to the library stating who they are, where they are, and what they do. Business cards, coupons, pens, pencils, etc. may be included on the poster. All local businesses, large or small, grocery stores to babysitters, restaurants to clowns are invited to participate. Business owners will meet and greet community members at the Business Fair Reception to be held Tuesday, March 24, 6-8 p.m. in the library. Refreshments will be served. Madison Public Library is located at 6111 Middle Ridge Rd. For more information call (440) 428-2189, Ext. 223 or visit www.madison-library.info.

Chamber welcomes new staff

MADISON TOWNSHIP - Alice Cable, president of the Madison-Perry Area Chamber of Commerce, announced the Katrina March has joined the Chamber staff as director of member relations. "Katrina has been involved in the chamber for several years, and in this role, she will help you make the most of your membership," Cable said. March's e-mail address is katrina@mpacc.org and the office phone number is (440) 428-3760.

Adult day services program opens in Perry

CLEVELAND - Buckeye Industries announces the opening of Madison West, a complete day services program for adults with developmental and intellectual disabilities. Buckeye Industries Madison, a business enterprise of New Avenues to Independence, has been offering training and employment to individuals with disabilities for nearly 10 years. Madison West's specialized care program includes: skills for daily living; self-expression through art, dance and music; recreation and leisure; community events and experiences; communication and socialization; music, art and pet therapy and high staff-to-participant ratio. Each person's special needs and interests are considered and a customized program is designed just for them. Participants are inspired to initiate and act upon personal choices in a supportive, comfortable home-like environment. Individualized care offers a specific schedule of activities that helps people acquire skills that are useful in their daily lives at home and in their communities. Madison West is located at 5051 South Ridge Rd., Perry Township. For more information on the Day Services Program, contact Debra White, habilitation/project manager, (440) 428-0042 or by e-mail at dwhite@newavenues.net.

About New Avenues to Independence New Avenues to Independence, Inc. is an organization that provides services, programs and opportunities to more than 750 people with disabilities in Northeast Ohio to become more independent and productive members of the community.

Lake Erie College awarded OBR grant

PAINESVILLE - Lake Erie College (LEC) has been awarded a grant from the Ohio Board of Regents (OBR) as part of the Improving Teacher Quality State Grants Program. This program is funded by the Federal No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 and aims to promote an educational environment at all levels where science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) learning can flourish.

LEC leadership and faculty believe that STEM training is essential in order for students in the United States to be competitive in a global marketplace.

Therefore, the college is developing quantitative project-based workshops with a focus on environmental health and safety to train teachers in local high-need school systems.

High school teachers enrolled in the program will participate in a series of workshops focused on water quality led by expert LEC faculty in biology, chemistry and physics.

This grant represents a collaborative effort among the faculty and staff from LEC in partnership with several local high schools. For more information on the Improving Teacher Quality Program, contact LEC Director of Development Pam Palermo at (440) 375-7225 or ppalern@lec.edu.

Ruhlin awarded contract for Vrooman Road Bridge

BY MARIAN MCMAHON
Gazette Newspapers

LAKE COUNTY - The Lake County Board of Commissioners has approved awarding the contract for the Vrooman Road Bridge and Roadway Improvements in the amount of $26.97 million to The Ruhlin Company.

"As we can see, this is probably one of the largest infrastructure projects in the history of Lake County, coming in at a little under $27 million," said Board President Dan Troy.

County Engineer Jim Gills noted the project was divided into two parts—the bridge and the roadway. Overall the cost is 8 percent under the estimate.

"The project has $22.382 million in federal funds for the bridge project and we have $2.736 million for the roadway portion from the federal government," Gills said. "The local share on the bridge is $5.4 million. The local share on the roadway is about a half million dollars."

He said Ruhlin was looked into and was determined to be "one of the better contractors for this kind of work."

Gills said the county estimate for completion is June 2017, but Ruhlin believes it can be done by the end of 2016.

Groundbreaking is to commence in March.

The present bridge, which crosses the Grand River from Perry Township to LeRoy Township, has had to be closed temporarily numerous times over the years due to flooding in the area. However, in early October, during a routine bridge inspection, damage—believed to be caused by an overloaded truck—has kept the bridge closed since then.

"This project includes a temporary bridge. This contractor has already started the process for it," Gills said.

He explained the temporary bridge will be constructed in a shop, then transported to the Grand River for placement.

The old bridge will be removed and the temporary bridge will be placed on the foundations of the old bridge, then the road will be reopened. It should remain in place about 18 months.

Gills believes the temporary bridge can be in place by mid-May.

Mandatory pre-application briefing March 27 for CDBG and HOME grant programs

LAKE COUNTY - The Lake County mandatory pre-application briefing for the following federal programs: Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) and Home Investment Partnership Program (HOME) will be conducted by the staff of the Lake County Planning and Community Development Office Friday, March 27 at 10 a.m.

The mandatory briefing will be held at a new location—Lake County Department of Utilities Learning and Business Center (ULAB) at 1881 Blase Nemeth Rd., Painesville Township.

Attendance at this meeting is a requirement to apply for CDBG and/or HOME funds for FY 2015 (Oct. 1, 2015 to Sept. 30, 2016).

Due to limited seating, LCP & CDO would appreciate having just one representative per organization attend.

This briefing will review the pertinent federal grant project requirements, the application forms in use, and the necessary timing in place for this process. A discussion of the application and award process in the context of the implementation of the current approved Lake County Consolidated Plan FY 2012-2016 (ConPlan) will occur.

The FY 2015 formula allocations are $1,249,918 CDBG and $347,341 HOME, which is a slight decrease from the prior year allocations.

The applications will be made available at this meeting. Applications must be completed and returned by 4 p.m. Monday, May 18 to the Lake County Planning & Community Development Office. The applications will require measurements of activities and outcomes that will facilitate the implementation of the HUD—ConPlan and will meet the expectations of HUD directives (i.e. Prevailing Wage/Davis-Bacon Act, Section 3, and Affirmatively Furthering Fair Housing).

Contact Rhea Benton or Marian Norman with questions at (440) 350-2740 or by e-mail at Rhea.Benton@lakecountyohio.gov or Marian.Norman@lakecountyohio.gov.

Registration is required through the use of rsvpplanning@lakecountyohio.gov.

be a stormwater issue when they are submerged.

"I don't think they're going to allow us to put that all on 2015 based upon all the numbers they've given us for each community," Cahill said. "Our contributions and what we're asking for are fairly close together, which is good; which is what they want. But we've got to be careful not to try to front-load too much. But if we space it out over the next two or three years, we really would like to work in Dana Park all through that whole Hyder project."

Bailey said, although the Village had money set aside, it would be preferable to use the $70,000 to leverage $200,000 for projects.

Concerning other related projects, engineer Eric Halbach of CT Consultants, Inc. reported notice had been posted for the rehab of the sanitary sewer rehab project.

The estimate of cost is $136,000.

"That project is crucial to our relationship with EPA right now for our mercury variance and for being proactive in our 1 and 1 (infiltration and inflow) efforts," Bailey said.

"We've also got a really good start on the SWIF grant for the streetscape bio-retention cells as well as the 319 grant which is the stream restoration on the cemetery property," Halbach said. In other business:

• Police Chief Dawn Shannon said the Geneva Madison Knights of Columbus used to do a recognition dinner for local police officers and firefighters.

"They decided to start it again this year. We had a vote of our peers, of all the officers, and (P.L.) Doug Covert is 2014's Police Officer of the Year and there will be a recognition dinner March 7," Shannon said.

• Bailey said the Madison Senior Center is in competition with the Eastlake Senior Center to raise money for meals.

"It started out as a penny challenge, but apparently some folks are coughing up greenbacks," he said.

He invited council to make contributions when they left after the meeting.

Mayor Sam Britton asked Council to approve residents for the Charter Review Committee including: Jerry Gardner, Cheryl Swackhammer, Mike Gehring, Kathy Linn, Ward Buck, Vince LoParo and Jack Josza.

The motion was passed.

• An ordinance accepting the bid of Trax Construction for waterline installation for the State Route 528 Southern Water Line Construction Project which had been tabled was untied and voted down.

When other issues are settled the project will be rebid.

• Second reading was held on an ordinance repealing ordinance No. 29-2005, as amended, and reenacting, amending, revising and enacting for codification purposes Part Three, Traffic Code, of the codified ordinances and declaring an emergency.

Law Director Joe Sze-man explained since the village has home rule, it has ordinances of its own under which violators might be charged rather than state statute. That enables the village to collect the fines, and for other reasons.

The ordinance will bring village codes in line with current state codes.

• Second reading was held on an ordinance repealing ordinance No. 9-2004, as amended, and repealing ordinance No. 10-2004, as amended, and reenacting, amending, rearranging, revising and enacting for codification purposes articles, one, three and four of part nine, streets and utilities of the codified ordinances of Madison Village concerning the rates, rules, regulations, conditions of service and governance of the village water works and sanitary sewer system utilities.

• First reading was held on an ordinance making permanent appropriations for the current expenses and for other expenditures of the village for the period beginning Jan. 1 through Dec. 31 and declaring an emergency.

• First reading was held on an ordinance authorizing the transfer of funds from the general fund to various funds as budgeted and declaring an emergency.

Fiscal officer Kristie Crockett said this was just for the regular annual fund transfers.

• First reading was held on an ordinance amending the zoning district map and to change the zoning of the former Red Apple Frame and Stithery property at 123 N. Lake St. from B-1 General Business District to B-2 Highway Business District.

The owners of the tattoo parlor on North Lake by Route 84 wish to relocate to the old Red Apple Frame shop.

"The difference between those two zoning districts are a couple of permitted uses, one of which is a tattoo parlor," said Dwayne Bailey, administrator.

The change would move the B-2 district one parcel south.

There will be a public hearing on the requested change March 16.

Councilmember Mark Vest said the Planning Commission was in favor of the change.

"We could see no problem with such usage in that area," he said.

• Council passed resolution honoring the Madison-Perry Area Chamber of Commerce award recipients for this year: John Denison, Community Service Award; Betty Jean (B.J.) Green, Heritage Award; and Madison Veterinary Hospital, Business of the Year.

• Council passed a resolution recognizing and honoring Matt Jarvis of Boy Scout Troop 52 upon earning and receiving the rank of Eagle Scout.

• The next meeting will be at 7:30 March 2.

Public Hearing # 1

Lake County groups get federal funds for housing assistance programs

By John Arthur Hutchison, The News-Herald

Monday, March 2, 2015

Four entities will receive Lake County's $370,657 federal allotment of Home Investment Partnership Program funds for the fiscal year 2014 that began Oct. 1 and runs through Sept. 30.

The organizations and their funding amounts are: Lifeline ($175,000), Extended Housing ($36,000), Fair Housing Resource Center ($66,000), and Western Reserve Community Development Corp. ($11,591).

Lake County commissioners approved the agreements with those entities — each is based in Painesville — by passing a resolution on Feb. 19.

"Most of these agreements offered to Extended Housing, Lifeline, Fair Housing Resource Center are for tenant-based rental assistance through providing either a subsidy, assistance in people retaining their homes or their apartments, and placing people in new apartments," said Marian Norman, Lake County Planning and Community Development Office program manager.

Norman said the small allocation for Painesville-based Western Reserve Community Development Corp. would be used for the agency's operating funds because it is a community housing development organization.

The county's allotment of HIPP funds for fiscal year 2015, which begins Oct. 1 and runs through Sept. 30, 2016, will be slightly less than the year before at $347,341, she said.

The county's federal allotment of Community Development Block Grant funds for fiscal year 2015 that also begins Oct. 1 and runs through Sept. 30, 2016, is $1,249,918.

Commissioners passed a resolution Jan. 29 that allocated $1,265,159 in CDBG funding for fiscal year 2014 that began Oct. 1 and runs through Sept. 30.

Entities that wish to apply for HIPP funds or CDBG funds need to attend a mandatory pre-application briefing at 10 a.m. March 27 at the Lake County Department of Utilities Learning and Business Center, 1981 Blase Nemeth Road in Painesville Township.

This briefing will review the pertinent federal grant project requirements, the application forms in use, and the necessary timing in place for this process.

Applications will be made available at the meeting and must be completed and returned by 4 p.m. May 18 to the Lake County Planning and Community Development Office.

Reservations to the meeting can be made by email to rsvppanning@lakecountyohio.gov.

For questions about the application process for the CDBG or HIPP programs, contact the Lake County Planning and Community Development Office at 440-350-2740 or by email at Rhea.Benton@lakecountyohio.gov, or Marian.Norman@lakecountyohio.gov.
